

Philharmonic Orchestra of the Americas

Alondra de la Parra, Founder and Artistic Director

2nd POA Young Composers Competition is proud to announce its second

Young Composers Competition 2008

The purpose of POA's Young Composers Competition is to encourage the creation and performance of new works for orchestra by young composers from the American continent.

PHOTO BY KfirZiv.com

For complete guidelines and application form please visit us at www.poamericas.org

or contact:

Philharmonic Orchestra of the Americas

520 8th Avenue Suite 330 Tel: 212-564-0508

e-mail: info@poamericas.org

Eligibility:

- All applicants must be from South America, Central America, North America or the Caribbean
- All applicants must be 35 years of age or younger
- Each applicant must submit an original musical work of 8-12 minutes in length

The Winner will receive:

- $4,000 USD Prize
- Premiere of his/her piece by the Philharmonic Orchestra of the Americas on Thursday, December 4 2008, 7PM at Frederick P. Rose Hall, Home of Jazz at Lincoln Center, including round trip transportation to New York City and accommodation at the Hotel Beacon (all expenses paid).

Application Deadline September 15th, 2008